Dear Sir,

Re: Wotif.com receives acceptances for 82% of travel.com.au Limited

Wotif.com Holdings Limited (Wotif.com) today announced that it had received acceptances for 82% of travel.com.au Limited (TVL) under its off-market takeover bid (Offer).

Wotif.com's takeover offer was subject to a condition that it received acceptances from shareholders holding at least 75.1% of TVL shares. Wotif.com, by the attached notice, advises that this minimum acceptance condition has now been fulfilled and that its Offer is free from that condition.

Robbie Cooke, Wotif.com's CEO and Managing Director, said "We are very pleased that more than 80% of TVL's shareholders have accepted our Offer and that we are now free of the major condition to our bid. Clearly, the vast majority of TVL's shareholders have concluded that accepting Wotif.com's Offer is in their best interests. I strongly encourage those remaining TVL shareholders yet to accept our offer to give it due consideration and to lodge their acceptances as soon as possible." Wotif.com's Offer is currently scheduled to close on 11 January 2008.

Robbie Cooke continued, "The level of acceptances received to date ensures that those Australian TVL shareholders who elect to accept Wotif.com shares (rather than cash) will, where applicable, be able to take advantage of capital gains tax rollover relief."

Any TVL shareholder who requires additional information or who requires a replacement acceptance form should contact the Wotif.com Offer Information Line on 1800 174 755 (from within Australia) or +61 2 8256 3381 (from outside Australia).

Yours faithfully

Robbie Cooke
