Dear Sir,

Re: Market Release - ninemsn

As announced to the market on 13 July 2006, Wotif.com and ninemsn entered into an agreement under which Wotif.com will provide an accommodation booking service for the ninemsn site.

Under the deal, the 7.69 million<sup>1</sup> people who visit the ninemsn site each month will be able to access the full suite of accommodation offered by Australasia's leading accommodation website, Wotif.com.

The agreement:

- provides for Wotif.com's booking engine to be integrated in various locations throughout the ninemsn site;
- provides for the creation of a co-branded accommodation portal within the ninemsn network; and
- delivers Wotif.com with other content integration and media support throughout the ninemsn site.

Consistent with the timetable for launching the co-branded site as announced on 13 July, Wotif.com is pleased to be able to confirm that the integrated service will be launched on the ninemsn site today.

Yours faithfully
